

A Fabulously Fun Figge Family Day

Celebrating Fins and Feathers: Children's Book Illustrations from The Eric Carle Museum of Picture Book Art

Noon-3 pm Saturday, February 4

Event activities sponsored by Wells Fargo
Free admission for all sponsored by John Deere

Come for lunch!
Family-friendly fare
served in the Figge Café from 11 am-2 pm!

Studio 2

- Painted tissue paper collages inspired by Eric Carle's colorful characters
- Stamp and draw animal and fish cards

Studio 3

Enjoy light refreshments

Studio 4

- Make a peanut butter and bird seed pine cone that's a winter feast for the birds
- Design and decorate fish and critter masks

Reading Room • 12:30-2:30 pm (drop-in)

Children's stories featured in Fins and Feathers

Auditorium • 1:30-2 pm and 2:30-3 pm

Performances highlighting the life of John James Audubon by acclaimed storyteller Brian "Fox" Ellis inspired by Wendell Minor's illustrations for Into the Woods: John James Audubon

Plaza • 12:30-1:30 pm

Ice sculpting by Rob Storm

South Vestibule & Wintergarden

Eagle watch with QC Audubon Society

There's a story about ME!

Featured books from the exhibition include Little Turtle's Big Adventure, Fish is Fish, Lottie's New Beach Towel, The Foolish Tortoise, The Mixed-up Chameleon, and Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See?

563.326.7804

www.figgeartmuseum.org

Davenport, Iowa

FIGGE
ART MUSEUM